Review of the Academic Year

Dean Fauteaux

Colorado College offers through some thirty departments courses in arts, engineering, and science. Affiliated with the Liberal Arts College is a School of Music and The Broadmoor Art Academy.

Courses in Applied Art, Interior Decorating, Costume Designing, and Costume Illustration are included among the various types of work offered. In addition, the location and resources of the Academy present unusual attraction for the student of landscape painting or for those whose chief interest lies in figure and portrait work. Art appreciation and history of art are taught by Miss Thayer, who temporarily fills the position left open by the death of Professor Leaming.

Under the direction of Professor Albright, the history and positions of the solar system were studied in the Department of Astronomy.

Courses in the Biology Department are arranged to meet the needs of students who wish to satisfy the minimum science requirement, for those who wish to major in biology, and for medieal school preparation. During the past year, Dr. Gilmore has been doing research work with the salamander. Dr. Penland, studying in eo-operation with the Carnegie Foundation, has been studying plant life in high altitudes.

The Chemistry Department offers courses to fulfill the seience requirement and to provide a major in chemical engineering. In the past year, research work has been conducted in regard to: new method for electrometric titrations, graphitic acid and transformation of aruosphous carbon into graphite, qualitative analysis of anions, and synthesis of anaesthetics. Dr. Barnes received an appointment as instructor in ehemical warfare for the Eighth Corps area.

The Engineering Department offers courses that enable students to receive the degree of Bachelor of Science with a major in Civil Engineering.

Economics and Business Administration are closely affiliated departments. A. P. R. Drucker, dean of the department, had published during the year, in the Accounting Review, an article, "Budgeting and the Sales Quota," and in the magazine of the I. L. U. S., Service, an article, "Education, the Greatest Force for Democracy."

Courses in the Department of Education are designed to provide an introduction to the problems of the public schools, to meet the requirements for a graduate certifieate, and to make students eligible to teach in the N. C. A. C. S.

schools. "The Degree with Honors at Colorado College" by Dean C. B. Hershey was published in School and Society. Next year, Dean Hershey will make a study of the public school systems in Germany.

Dean Lovitt

Colorado College has one of the best equipped Forestry Schools in the United States. It possesses a 6,200 acre tract of wooded land timbered with a relatively young stand of western yellow pine and Douglass fir. Excellent buildings and other camp facilities are provided so that the tract may be used for a field laboratory and forestry taught in the forest. The Fremont Experiment Station and the Monument Nursery, units of the Forest Service, are close at hand and are used by the department.

The Geology Department offers a full curriculum in petroleum and structural geology. Work in this department is also taken up extensively by students interested in satisfying the minimum science requirement.

For those students who wish to satisfy the social science requirements, and for students who plan to enter law school, the History Department offers a variety of courses. Dr. Hulbert, working under the Stewart Commission, has published articles entitled: "The Dead Wood Stage Route," "Letters of an Overland Stage Agent in Utah," "The Provincial Basis for Patriotism," "The First Wagon Train on the Road to Oregon," "The Soil Factor in American History," and Frontiers. Dr. Binkley has been continuing his work on the history of Texas.

Under the direction of Jack F. Lawson, city editor of the Colorado Springs Gazette, the Department of Journalism offered a general survey course in newspaper work. An advanced course will be offered next year. Mr. Lawson was the author of an article, "Pickwick Papers," which appeared in the magazine, Motor Travel.

The Department of Mathematics was host to the American Mathematical Society and the Mathematical Association of America, last summer. Professor Sisam presented a paper entitled "Threespread Multiply Generated by Right Line." He also published in the Messenger of Mathematics of London, an article, "Ruled Three Dimensional Varieties of Order Five."

For women students interested in taking graduate courses in library work, Miss Kampf, librarian, offered a practical elementary course in library science, second semester.

The School of Music offers courses in vocal and in instrumental music. Majors in this department receive the degree of Bachelor of Arts. Frequent recitals and the meetings of the musical society, Euterpe, are features of the annual program of the department.

Wm. Postlethwaite

Courses in the various branches of philosophy are conducted in the Department of Philosophy under the direction of Dr. Wilm. High standards with the idea of creating the technique of dealing with intellectual problems is the aim of the department. In an issue of the Nation, an article, "The College and Main Street," written by Dr. Wilm, was published.

In the Department of Psychology, a new course, "Contemporary Psychology," was offered this year for the first time. Research work on the study of mental growth was made by Miss Angeline Keen, an assistant in the department.

Under the direction of Mr. Olson, the electric machines in the laboratory of the Physics Department were redesigned. Research work on the sputting of thin films, the measurement of the field intensity of Broadcasting Station KFUM, and the remodeling of the oscillography is in progress under the direction of Mr. Boucher and Mr. Olson. An article by Mr. Olson, "An Observed Periodicity in the Packing Fraction," was published in the Physical Review.

Believing that practice should be combined with theory, Dr. Bramhall, of the Department of Political Science, last year became a candidate for membership on the city council and was elected. Students in the department took part in the Model Assembly of the League of Nations conducted by students of foreign affairs in the universities and colleges of Colorado. The Assembly met in Denver in March. Dr. Bramhall is active at the present time in working on the committee which is attempting to secure a revision of the Constitution of Colorado.

The Department of Romance Languages offers work in French, in Spanish, and in Italian. In addition to people who take courses in this department to satisfy the minimum language requirements, a number of language major students always are enrolled. The French club will be re-established, next year, after a lapse of some time. Connected with this department are courses in the German language and literature.

"Child Labor in Agriculture and Farm Life in the Arkansas Valley of Colorado" by Bertram H. Mautner and W. Lewis Abbott of the Department of Sociology was among the articles published by Colorado College faculty members during the year. The article was also published by the National Child Labor Committee. Original research work was done in 1929 by Miss Dorothy Rehm, a graduate student in the department. Miss Rehm's subject was "Changes in the Attitudes of College Students."

Under the direction of Arthur G. Sharp, Jr., of the English Department, a number of plays were presented during the year. Programs were also presented by the Department of Dramatics.

Josephine Morrow

The Department of English contains the names of two new instructors, Mr. George Ranson and Mr. Arthur Sharp. Professor Jessie Hutsinpillar, who is on leave of absence, is spending the year in Washington, D. C. This year the department has taught its customary list of courses with a few minor changes. Professor Rose has reorganized the course in Mythology, which is now devoted exclusively to the study of Northern Sage and Legend. Mr. Sharp is conducting a new course in Dramatic Technique and Production for those especially interested in the problems of stage management and acting. Professor Goodenough has organized a course in Scientific Exposition, which is designed to meet the needs of science students and others who desire additional training in English composition. Professor Amanda Ellis published "A Celtic Treasure House" in Poet Lore.

Besides its regular courses the Department of Classical Language and Literature introduced a new class, "Vergil and his contribution to World Literature," given by the President of the College in special commemoration of the two-thousandth anniversary of the birth of Vergil. Both Dr. C. C. Mierow and Dr. H. E. Mierow have published several articles this year.

The Field Secretary of the college, Mr. W. D. Copeland, has been actively engaged in the work of carrying on the endowment campaign for two and one-half million dollars which was authorized by the Board of Trustees. In addition, the secretary's office is in direct contact with all the high schools of the state supplying them with information concerning the college, and advising students who intend to enter Colorado College.

Mrs. Louise W. Fauteaux, Dean of Women, and Dr. William V. Lovitt, Dean of Men, have continued the customary work of their offices in exercising general supervision over undergraduate activities.

Dean Fauteaux's duties cover a wide range of problems. The Dean of Women has an additional duty this year in serving as ex-officio and advisory member of the legislative board of the Associated Women Students of Colorado College.

In addition to the usual functions performed by the office of the Dean of Men, analyses of students' grades have been made at regular intervals under the direction of Dean Lovitt who introduced the system last year.

VESTAL INGRAHAM DEWEY SHELDON WILSON HARMON

The Associated Students of Colorado College

The Administrative Council of the Associated Students of Colorado College, working as a unit and not as representatives of different campus organizations, has had a constructive year in regard to forwarding successful cooperation in campus activities and promoting spirit and enthusiasm on the Colorado College campus. Constructive traditions were inaugurated while those which had outlived their usefulness and were likely to bring discredit to the college were abolished.

The new constitution which was approved by the student body has enabled much progressive legislation to come from the student council. This new instrument has made it possible for conditions to be met as they arise, for activities to be regulated by the council for the best interests of the college, and has gone far toward eliminating that ever-present evil, campus commercialism. The document provides for machinery for government but leaves the final power in the hands of the council which must bear the ultimate responsibility. Many of the managerships of college activities are now a source of income to the school, and thus worthwhile organizations are given the help which is necessary to their existence.

OFFICERS OF THE ADMINISTRATIVE COUNCIL

President ..... STEWART WILSON
Secretary ..... SARAH SHELDON
Treasurer ..... HAROLD HARMON

REID CAMPBELL TRIPPEL DORLAC KEYSER ENGEL

In continuance of the policy of the treasurer of last year's council of keeping the council within its income, the treasurer of this council has maintained nearly untouched the surplus left from last year, in spite of the heavy demands made upon the council by a new organization, the Associated Women Students. Men's debate also has needed extra help this year because of the long trip that was made and because of the debate conference that was held here.

A delegate was sent to the conference of the National Student Federation of America, an organization which, though still in its infancy, does much to promote better student government in the colleges and universities of the United States. The Federation is planning an inter-collegiate news bureau and a traveling secretary, improvements which can materialize only if the members of the Federation continue to support its activities until it achieves prominence. Stewart Wilson, the Colorado College delegate to the convention, which was held in Palo Alto, California, brought back many useful suggestions, and the reorganization of the student government as allotted to the council by the new constitution was carried out along the lines suggested by our delegate.

THE PIKES PEAK NUGGET

The Pikes Peak Nugget, the official year book of Colorado College, is published by the Junior Class.

Every effort has been made to catch in this Nugget a picture of Colorado College life as well as to record permanently the chief events of the school year. Although we have failed to present much that is fundamental in campus life, it is our hope that we have done more than compile a history for the year, but have in some measure held a little of the sentiment of undergraduate days.

By introducing linoleum engravings, the art work of the book has been carried out along more modern lines than any of its predecessors. It is hoped that this rather unique medium will afford an acceptable change from the colored plate work usually favored by college year books. The theme of this year's Nugget is the portrayal of the gradual development of the college as marked by its progress in building, culminating this year in the Shove Memorial Chapel which is now being erected. As a minor motif, undergraduates of the period in which the building was constructed appear in the foreground of each cut.

To the staff, and most especially to the associate editor, the editor takes this opportunity to extend his thanks for their diligence and co-operation in making this edition of the Nugget possible.

THE COLORADO COLLEGE TIGER

The Tiger, official student publication of Colorado College, is issued each week. An innovation this year was the change in the make-up of the paper. A weekly news magazine, rather than the typical college paper, has been introduced. The magazine, a four-column, twelve-page publication, offers a decided improvement over the Tiger of former years.

The editor and the manager of the Tiger are selected by the Administrative Council of the Associated Students of Colorado College. Other members of the staff are chosen by the editor from students who try out at the first of the year. Any students who desire to be members of the staff may ask for assignments from the editor or may volunteer stories.

News, features, editorials, and student opinion are included in the Tiger. An effort is made to present controversial questions in a fair and impartial manner, and students are urged to express their views in the section devoted to campus opinion. It is the policy of the Tiger to support all worthwhile college activities.

THE STUDENT HANDBOOK

The Student Handbook presents to the student body the traditions and customs of the school, the songs and yells and information concerning college rules, campus organizations, and student and faculty officers. It is a handy reference book containing a wealth of valuable information especially for freshmen.

This year's book was compiled by Franklin Emery.

ACTIVITIES

HOMECOMING

Homecoming, one of the leading traditions of Colorado College, was celebrated the first of November. The feature of the program for the week-end was a football game between Colorado College and the University of Utah. President and Mrs. Mierow entertained at open house for alumni and friends of the college after the game. The annual alumni luncheon was given in Bemis Hall, and breakfast and buffet suppers honoring alumni were held at the various fraternity and society houses. Richard Vanderhoof was general chairman of the committees in charge of arrangements.

MAGNA PAN-PAN

Magna Pan-Pan, the annual all-college amateur vaudeville show, was held in Perkins Hall on the evening preceding the closing of school for the Christmas holidays. Acts were presented by each society, each fraternity, and any other organization desiring to participate. No attempt is made to commercialize Pan-Pan, and the admission charge is nominal, its purpose being to help defray expenses. Cash prizes for the best acts presented were won by Phi Delta Theta and by Hypatia Society. Kenneth Pomeroy was manager of Pan-Pan, and Barret Griffith was his assistant.

VARSITY JUBILEE

The Varsity Jubilee, a comparatively new tradition at Colorado College, was organized to supplant the All-College picnic, and has been gaining in popularity since its inauguration two years ago. The Jubilee is one of the affairs on the social calendar which is featured as being "all-college." The various fraternities on the campus are urged to support the Varsity Jubilee, and an effort is made to make it one of the most interesting events on the social schedule.

The Jubilee offers an evening of varied entertainment for the guests. This year the program began with bridge and dancing at the Broadmoor Hotel. Supper and dancing at the Chapel Inn followed, and the final feature of the evening's entertainment was a theater party. The managers of the Varsity Jubilee for 1930 were Arthur Baylis and Paul Conover.

COLONIAL BALL

The Colonial Ball, an annual event on the social calendar, is presented every year under the auspices of the women of the Sophomore Class. All Colorado College women are invited to attend the affair which is held in Bemis Commons. A feature of the program of the evening is the minuet presented by girls selected from the Sophomore Class by try-outs held several weeks before the ball. The girls in the minuet, as well as the other guests at the dance wear colonial costumes.

The importance of the Colonial Ball lies not only in the fact that is is an interesting party, but also in that it provides an opportunity for all Colorado College women to be together for one evening, regardless of other affairs which may tend to divide their interests during most of the year. Alyce Ireland, vice-president of the Sophomore Class, was in charge of plans for the Colonial Ball this year.

WOMEN'S GLEE CLUB

The Women's Glee Club is composed of members selected by tryouts at the beginning of each semester. The organization gives concerts each year and takes part in various programs in the city and on the campus. Mrs. John Speed Tucker directs the work of the Club.

DEBATING

After a successful season in conference debating, the Colorado College squad of five men and Coach W. D. Copeland climaxed the year with a 2,500 mile trip, visiting schools in the Middle West, East and South. Debaters making the journey were Roland Anderson, Arthur Baylis, Nelson Brown, Bert Vandervliet, and Clifford Vessey.

In addition to carrying a heavy schedule of contests all winter, the members of the debating squad were hosts to the conference debate meet which was held in March, with forensic stars from the schools in the Rocky Mountain Conference coming for the three day meeting.

DRAMATICS

Under the direction of Arthur G. Sharp, Jr., of the English Department, dramatics have this year taken a new lease on life. In the past, the interest in play production has been confined to a few interested students, but this year has seen great increase in dramatic activity on the campus. The season was opened with Ibsen's "Wild Duck" which was adequately presented and very well received. The leads were carried by Mary L. Strachan and James Keyser who gave very acceptable interpretations of their roles. At Homecoming, Koshare prepared a one act play for the entertainment of alumni and friends of the college who did not care to attend the Homecoming dance. This play, "A Night in an Inn", was well received and showed a marked improvement over past Homecoming bills.

In March, a bill of three "one-acters" was presented, including "The Rising of the Moon," "The Boy Comes Home," and "The Return of Private Krutch." The last named, written by Mr. Sharp, was entered in the Little Theater Tournament at Denver where it took first place among the college entries. Miss Strachan, playing Liese Krutch, was awarded first prize for being the best actress in the tournament, while Mr. Sharp received second place for his play in the Colorado authors' competition.

DRAMATICS

It is evident that a decided improvement in the character of the plays presented this year will be observed by anyone who has followed Colorado College dramatics in the past. It seems only natural, therefore, that there should be a corresponding improvement in the quality of the acting in the plays presented. Plays difficult in interpretation have been presented, and the resulting performances have been notably smooth and finished. Under the direction of Mr. Sharp latent talent has been discovered and trained in such a way that remarkably good productions in dramatics have been the result.

A second bill of one act plays is to be presented in May which will be made up of "His First Dress Suit," "The Monkey's Paw" and "My Turn Next." This bill will close an unusually successful dramatic season at the college.

The foresters putting out seedlings; a party of hikers; "Eagle Rock"; "on the rocks"—and a view of the plains; logging at Camp Colorado.

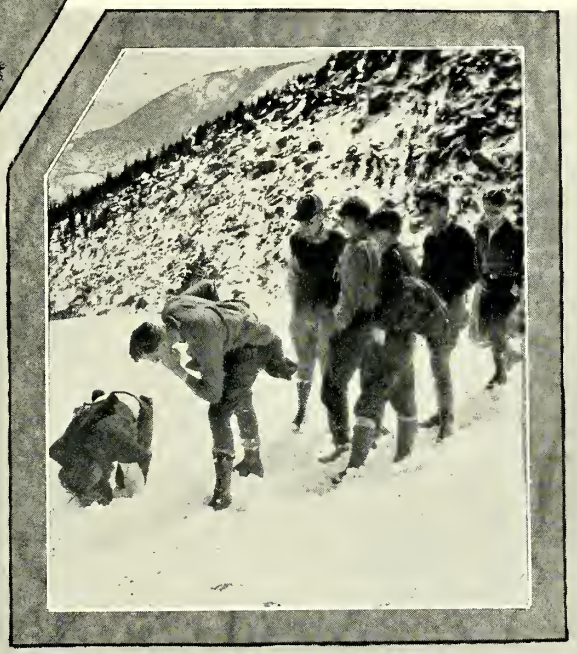

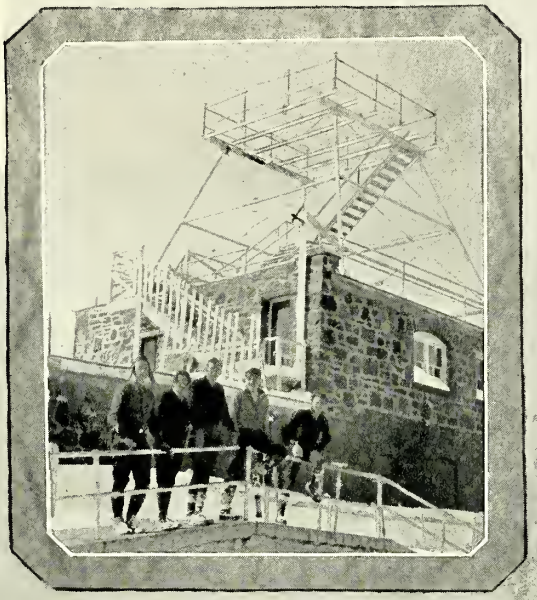

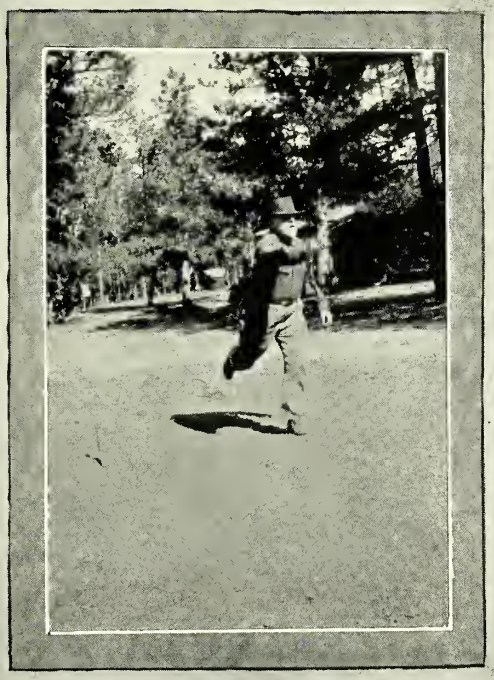

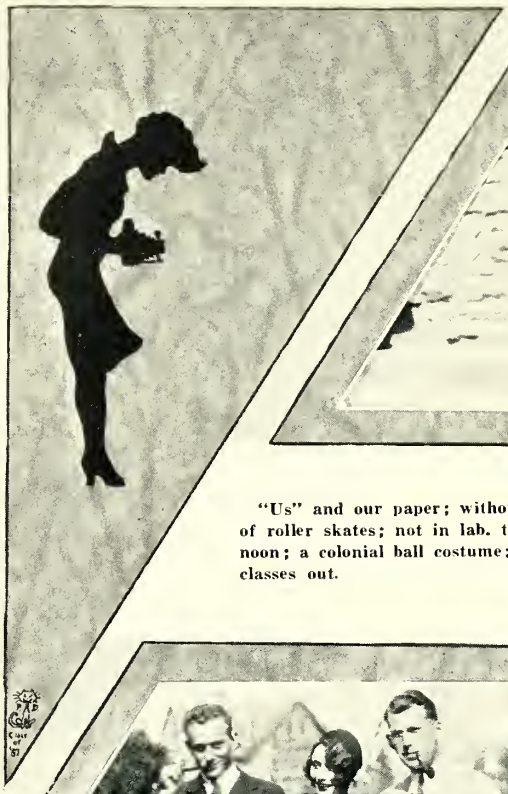

The Forestry camp; a party on the way to the Peak, and on the summit; the foresters around their fire; Prof. Parker at "barn-yard golf."

"Us" and our paper; without benefit of roller skates; not in lab. this afternoon; a colonial ball costume; morning classes out.

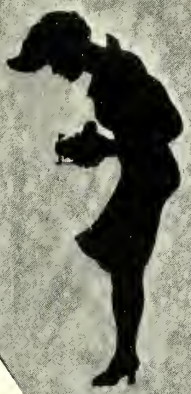

Registration; co-eds—no doubt hunting for men; even more co-eds—the freshman with the book just saw a "prof"; "prominent publisher surrenders to the call of Spring"; more registration.

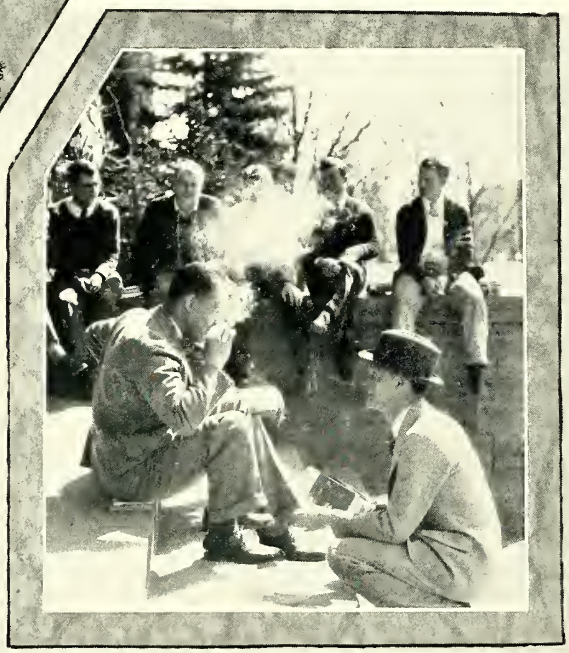

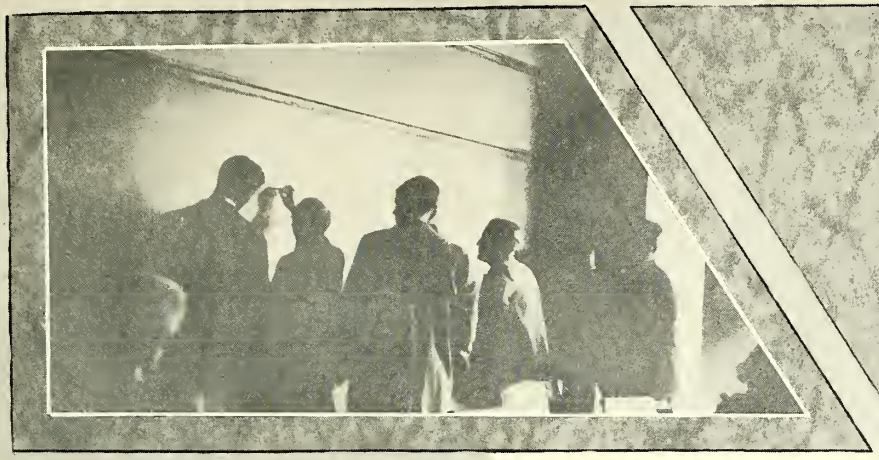

Our band steps out; two mid-morning groups enjoying the sun; "all ready for a walk"; the blanket tossers.

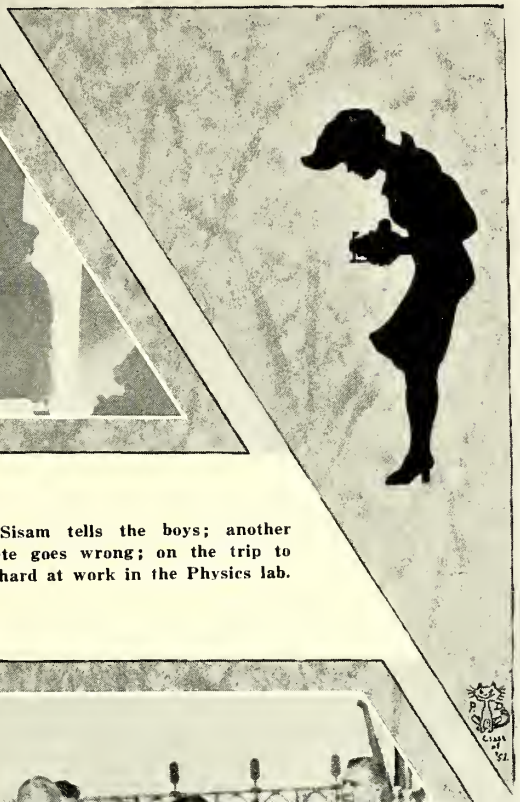

Dr. Sisam tells the boys; another Phi Bete goes wrong; on the trip to Utah; hard at work in the Physics lab.

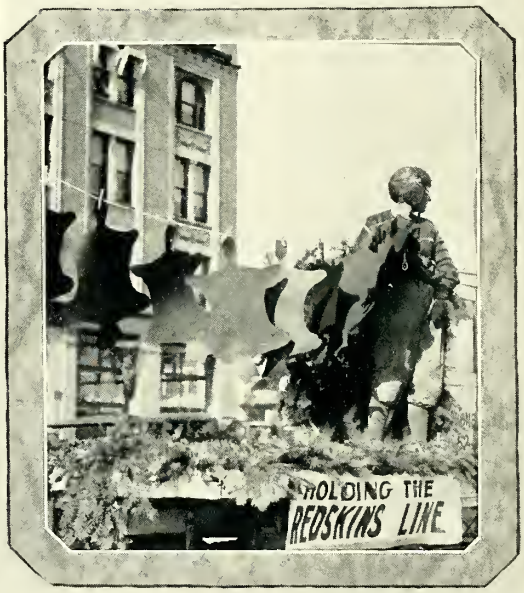

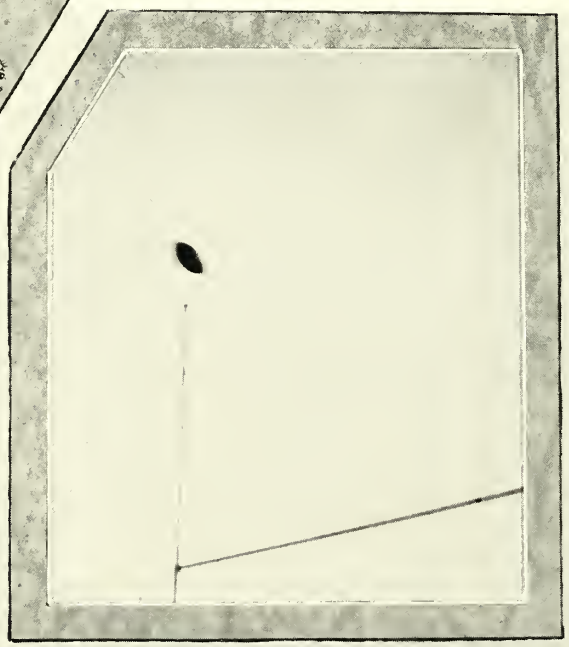

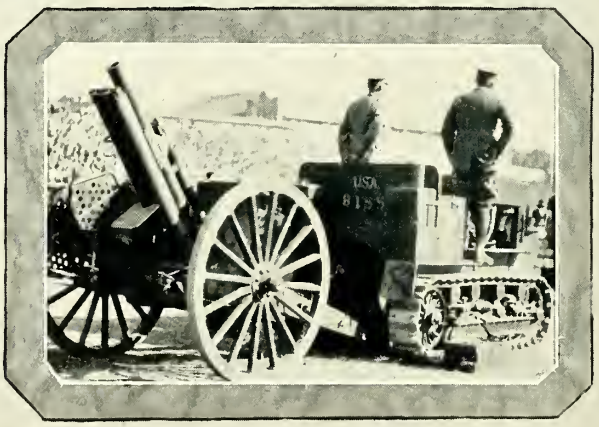

Football time: a torch parade; a float in the Homecoming parade; "What about it Denver, three points?" the Aggies' cannon—which did not fire for victory; ready for a pep bonfire.

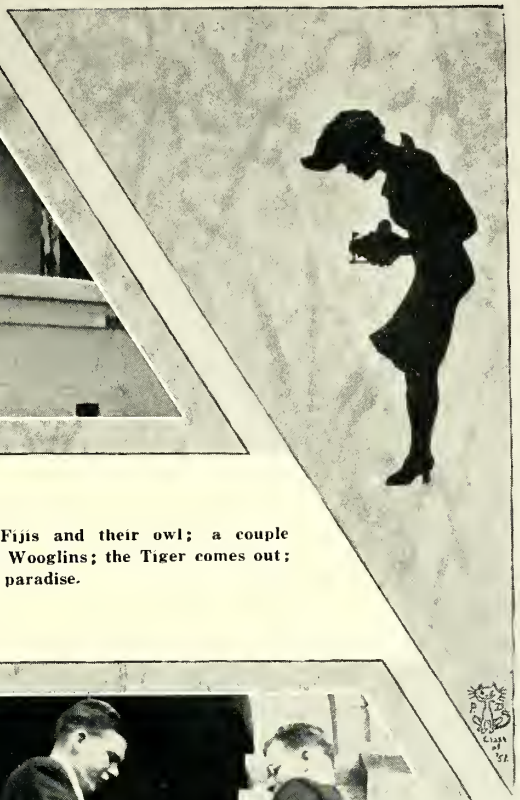

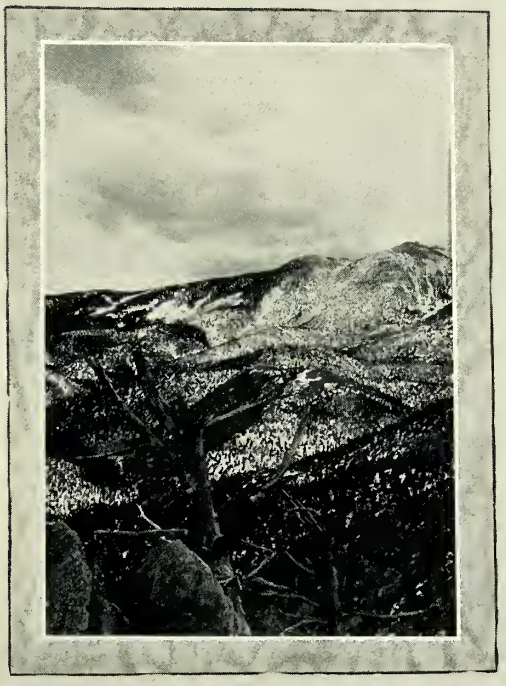

The Fijis and their owl; a couple of good Wooglins; the Tiger comes out; hikers' paradise.

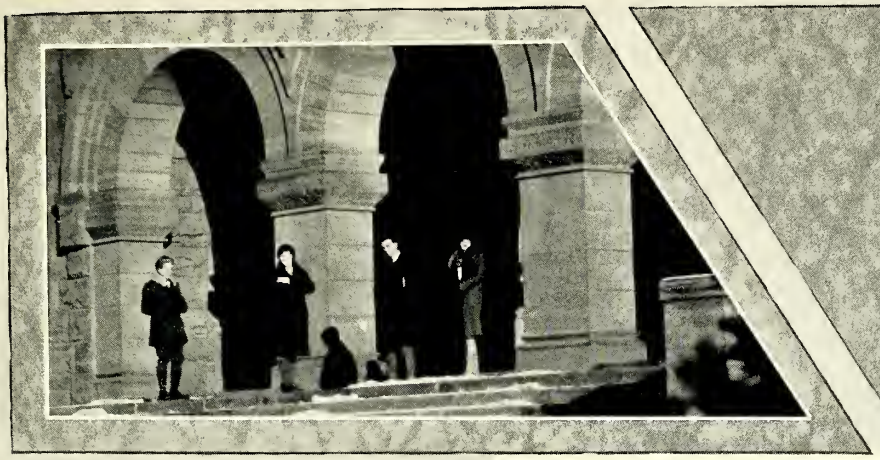

The Poli. Sci. classes attend the Model League at Denver; two "between class" groups; "buddies"; doing the "breakaway."

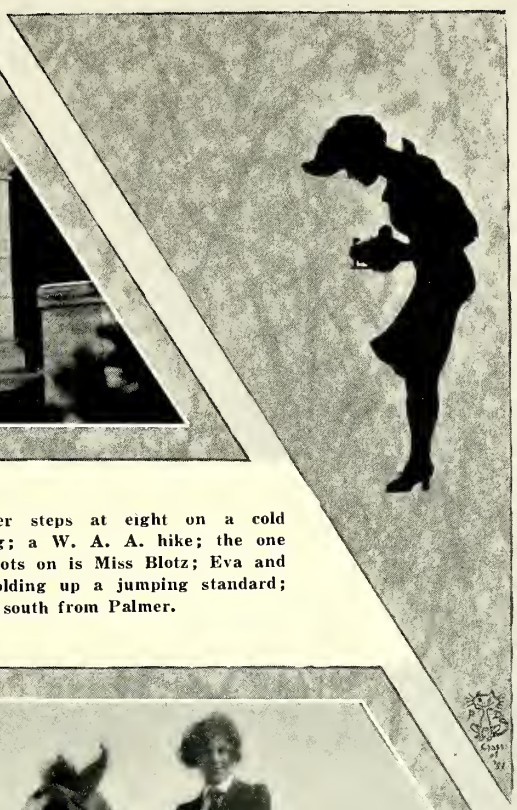

Palmer steps at eight on a cold morning; a W. A. A. hike; the one with boots on is Miss Blotz; Eva and Beth holding up a jumping standard; looking south from Palmer.

Three views of the "cast" of the "C" Club stunt including some of the "fairest co-eds"; the freshmen celebrate a Tiger victory in the traditional way; freshmen stepping the gauntlet.

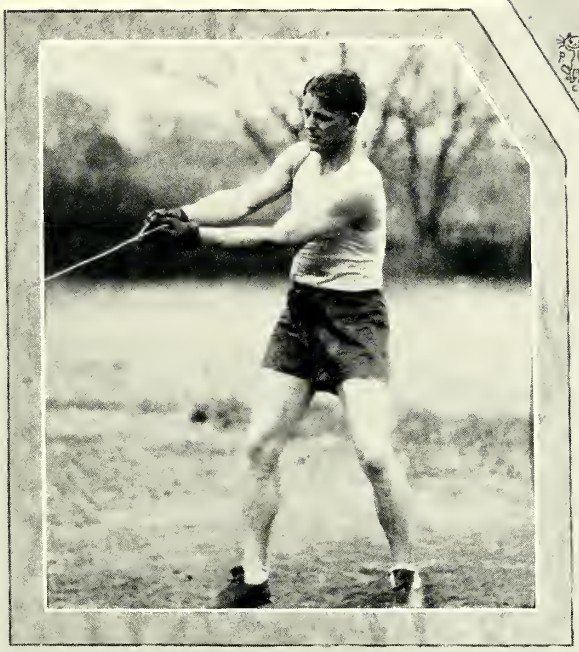

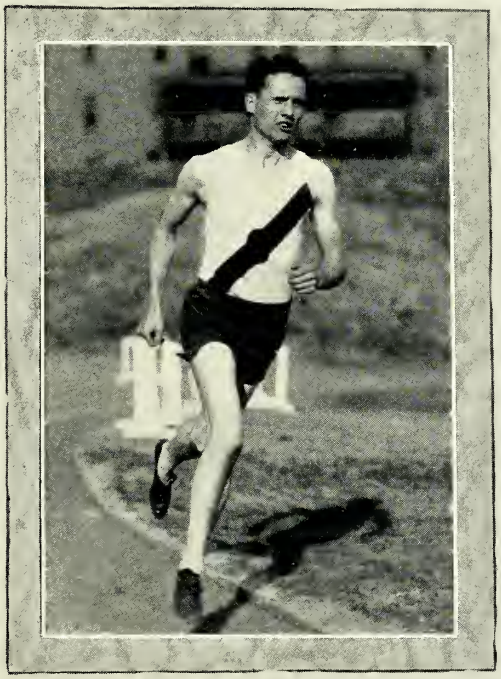

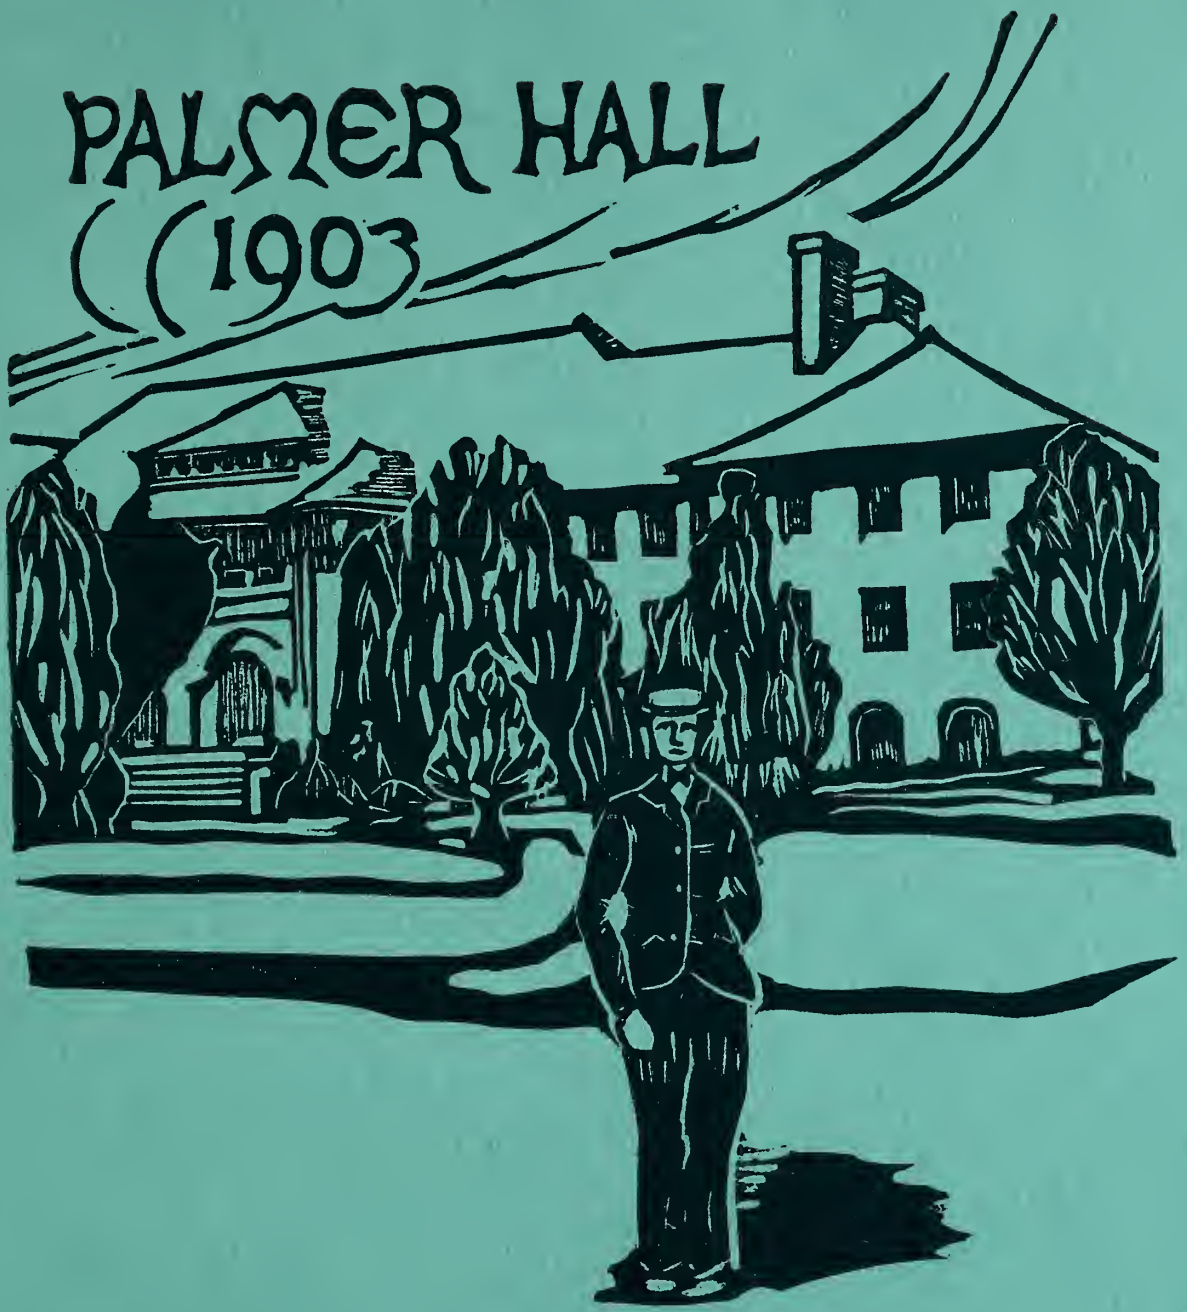

The tennis courts; good form in the broad jump; "Dutch" and his hammer; "Ed" rounding the last curve in the two-mile; over the top.

ATHLETICS

"Dutch" Clark—All American Quarterback

A letter in every major sport, twice captain of the basketball team, captain of the football team, and All-American quarter-back—these are some of the outstanding accomplishments of Colorado College's greatest athlete, Earl Harry (Dutch) Clark. To alumni of the college he has brought fulfillment of their dreams of a nation wide reputation in athletics for the Black and Gold; for us—his classmates—no small share of reflected glory; and for future Tigers, a record which they may well strive to emulate.

COACHING STAFF

Coach Van de Graaff

COACH WILLIAM T. VAN DE GRAAFF

Coach "Bully" Van de Graaff completed this year his fourth season as head coach and director of athletics at Colorado College. During this time he has developed championship contenders each year. Though handicapped by an extremely small squad, hardly two full teams, Van de Graaff has made the Tiger teams feared on every campus in the Rocky Mountain Conference.

Before coming to Colorado College, "Bully" served as an assistant coach at the University of Alabama, his Alma Mater.

In his under-graduate days, Van de Graaff played tackle for the "Crimson Horde," receiving All-American tackle selection. After being graduated from Alabama, he went to West Point where he played three years at tackle for the Army.

Besides being a football coach of the first water, "Bully" is a man of the character who can instill the highest type of sportsmanship and loyalty into his men. To this, even more than to his ability as coach, the Tigers attribute their successes.

COACH WALTER HUGHES

Coach Hughes has been connected with the Tiger coaching staff for three years. In 1927 he served as Frosh mentor, and since then as an assistant varsity coach. This year, Coach Hughes has taken over the baseball squad, and pre-season games point to a stellar Bengal nine for 1930.

"Walt" is a former Tiger football star, and was also on the receiving end of the famous Hughes-Hughes battery.

COACHING STAFF

Coach Herigstad, serving his first year at Colorado College, comes from Central High School at Pueblo where he was head coach.

"Ole" holds the position of assistant football coach and head coach in basketball.

Under his direction the Bengal five were Eastern Division title contenders, losing to the C. U. team. Although his team started slowly, "Ole" had the Black and Gold hoopsters playing first rate ball at the end of the season, and has trained some good material for next year.

Coach Herigstad

While an undergraduate at Aggies, Herigstad played end on the football team, and alternated between center and guard on the basketball floor.

COACH IRISH

Coach Irish for four years has coached the Tiger track team. In his under-graduate days at the University of Illinois, he was captain of the freshman varsity track team. In 1917, Jo was chosen on the official All-American track team as broad jumper.

FRED PICKARD

Coach Pickard also came to Colorado College from Alabama where he was All-American tackle for two years. Pickard served as line coach for the Bengals.

COACH JO IRISH

MANAGERS

Jo Irish, track coach and graduate manager, is to a great extent responsible for Colorado College's successes in athletics. As a track coach he has put out squads which finished high in the meets of the conference, and has brought out several conference record breakers. Irish holds such records as 24 feet in the broad jump, 6 feet 2½ inches in the high jump, and 9 4-5 seconds for the hundred. In 1917 he was chosen on the All-American for the broad jump.

In this business of football and other varsity athletics, the graduate manager's efficiency has gradually brought Colorado College athletics back on a sound financial basis. Assisting Irish are student managers who are assigned to various sports.

REVIEW OF THE SEASON FOR 1930

From a squad of less than twenty-five candidates, Coach "Bully" Van de Graaff built a team that was heralded as "the most feared in the conference." Forming his offense around "Dutch" Clark, All-American quarterback, Van de Graaff put what was probably the strongest Tiger team of all times in the field.

FRESHMAN FOOTBALL

Under Coaches Vandenburg and Roessner, the Frosh carried out successfully the unpleasant task of providing opposition for the Varsity.

Fort D. A. Russell invaded Washburn Field for the first game. This game showed the potential strength of the yearlings although the Army men won by a 12 to 6 score.

The following week, the Wyoming Frosh invaded the Jungle and fought the Tiger cubs to a standstill. Neither team was able to muster sufficient offensive strength to push over a score.

A great defensive battle was the result of the Denver invasion. A soggy field handicapped the ballcarriers, and the result was another scoreless tie.

Gunnison was the scene of the only serious defeat suffered by the Freshmen. The experience and co-operation of the men on the Mountaineer eleven proved to be too much for the Tiger cubs. Western State won by a 33 to 0 score.

In the season's final game, the Frosh defeated the Grand Junction College team. An improvement in both individual and team play was responsible for the success of the first year men. The final score was 15 to 7.

Colorado College 14 — Colorado Agricultural College 13

In the second game of the season, a fighting Tiger team took the field determined to upset the Aggie jinx, and after sixty minutes of magnificent football, the Bengals emerged with a 14 to 13 victory. The Black and Gold line played inspired ball and endeared itself to every Tiger follower. Leon Starbuck and McGrory were towers of strength in the forward wall.

IRWIN

The C. C.-Denver game, the season opener, did not bring out the brand of football which the Tigers displayed in their other games, but it will long be remembered for its many thrilling moments

Throughout, the game was more like a "movie" thriller than a football game. With less than two minutes to play and the Pioneers leading 2 to 0, "Dutch" Clark kicked a field goal from the thirty-three yard line. To make things more like a college football picture, the ball went directly over one of the uprights and not until some minutes was the score allowed. Another exciting feature of the game was a spectacular run by the D. U. captain from mid-field to the Tiger's three yard line where he was brought down by Clark so hard that he fumbled the ball and C. C. recovered.

INGRAHAM

HINKLEY

The Pioneers made their only tally early in the second period when a Tiger back was caught behind his own goal giving D. U. two points for a safety.

Following the game, a Denver paper carried the headline, "'Dutch' Clark, a first class man, defeats Denver, a first class team." Truly a great tribute to a great player.

Colorado College 0 — Utah Agricultural College 10

SOUTHARD

In journeying to Utah, the Tigers met their first defeat at the hands of the Utah Aggie eleven at Ogden. The C. C. team was greatly handicapped by injuries, Weaver being forced to retire after the first few plays because of injuries sustained in practice, while Cogan, Reid, and Heter were hurt in the game to an extent which undoubtedly slowed them up.

HAYDEN

COGAN

The Aggie touchdown came by virtue of a series of passes and end runs which the Tigers were unable to solve.

The Bengal line showed up well, for the most part stopping the Aggies completely, and forcing them to rely solely on an open style of play. McGrory and L. Starbuck were outstanding in the line, turning in an almost perfect defensive game.

REID

A crushing defeat was the best the newspapers could see in store for the C. C. team in its homecoming game with the powerful Ute eleven. The Tigers lost, but it was a defeat more glorious than any of their victories. While the game was yet in its infancy, Captain Clark kicked a field goal which was the first thrill in one of the greatest football games ever played on Washburn Field.

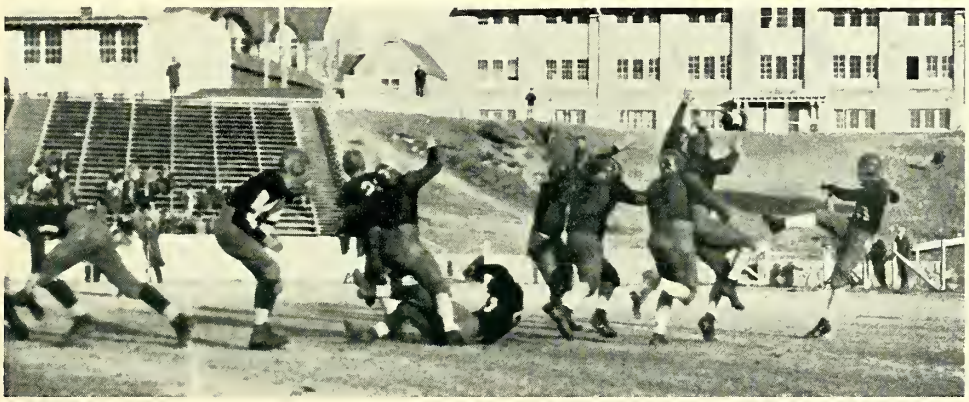

JONES

WEAVER

Eight times the Utes advanced the ball beyond the Tiger ten yard line; six times the Bengals repelled the onslaught. Before the best line in the conference, the Black and Gold forward wall refused to crumble, and the two times that Utah was successful the C. C. men were able to break through to thwart the attempt for the point after touchdown.

Coach Van de Graaff's team was the only one to check the charging rushes of such great backs as Pomeroy and Price. "Dutch" Clark played his usual great game, and every other Tiger reached heights far above the expectations of even the most ardent Tiger fans.

Colorado College 54 — Western State College 21

REA

Playing a driving game that broke down the weaker Western State line, the Tigers ran through their opponents almost at will to win by the one-sided score of 54 to 21. The Mountaineers were completely outplayed and out-witted in practically every department of the game.

The game was a walkaway for the Tigers from the start till the final period, but with only a few minutes to play Western State opened up a dazzling passing attack which was good for three touchdowns. The final gun found the Tigers still unable to solve the attack which was led by Captain Rickard, stellar end on the Gunnison eleven.

WARNING

E. STARBUCK

The Mountaineers' comeback was not enough, however, to overcome the lead piled up by the Black and Gold aggregation. Captain Clark scored almost at will for the Tigers, turning in a total of 34 points which put him in the lead for high-scorer of the conference.

The Starbuck brothers and Meformers in the line, while Ed Hartfield. Grory were the outstanding perman played brilliantly in the back-

In spite of a great comeback in the second half, the Tigers were unable to overcome State's early lead, and came out of the game on the short end of a 13 to 7 score. The C. C. aerial attack reached its height in this game, and had it not been for the slippery field the Tigers might have been even more dangerous in the overhead game.

C. U. displayed a great running attack featuring Captain Smith and Reagan. Each of these men was able to cross the Tiger goal line, but only after repeated thrusts at the stubborn defense put up by the Tiger line.

Clark starred both on offense and defense, while Ingraham and Mc- Grory were towers of strength.

Due to the fact that Captain "Dutch" Clark had gained such a reputation throughout the country, the college authorities scheduled his last appearance on the gridirons of the conference in his home town, Pueblo.

The Tigers closed their 1929 season on Thanksgiving day with a 13 to 0 victory over the Miners. The game was hard fought with many thrills, chief of which was a 62 yard run, back of a kick-off by Captain Carr of the Orediggers who almost eluded the entire Bengal team. The whole game was featured by spectacular runs by Carr and Clark who, time after time, brought the spectators to their feet.

Two reserve backs, Akin and Pomeroy, found themselves in this game giving promise of great things next year. McGrory and L. Star-buck played their usual outstanding game in the line while Hayden turned in a great game also. In the backfield, Clark and Ingraham carried the brunt of the attack.

Four seniors, Clark, Cogan, Southard, and Parker ended their careers in a blaze of glory.

BASKETBALL

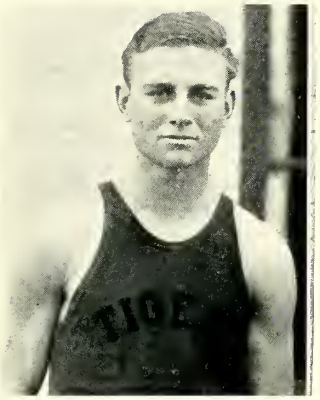

Captain Clark

Under the coaching of "Ole" Herigstad, the 1930 basketball team came within an ace of putting C. C. in her old position at the top of the conference standing.

After getting away to a slow start, the Tigers started a scoring streak that carried them from the cellar position up to within striking distance of the championship. Due to defeat at the hands of Western State, and one at the hands of the Teachers, the Bengals took third place in the percent column. Their strength may be shown by the fact that they tied a brace of games with the strong Wyoming five, and lost the title by splitting with the champion State team when they needed both games to take the Eastern Division.

The season opened with the Tigers working far from smoothly, losing two pre-season games to Kansas Aggies, two to De Paul, and their first two conference games to Teachers and Western State respectively. In the second game with Western State, the Tigers were able to gain a victory, but suffered defeat in their next contest at the hands of Denver University. Following a little shift in the lineup, however, the Black and Gold five settled down to uphold the C. C. reputation and took seven straight games.

The feature of the 1930 basketball season in the Rocky Mountain Conference was the two game series between C. C. and C. U. The Bengals needed both games to head the division, but lost the first one, after a terrific battle, by three points. Although they were able to even things up with the Boulder five the next night by a 39 to 36 victory, because of defeats suffered at the beginning of the season, the title went upstate.

Captain-Elect Ingraham

The team was led this year by Captain "Dutch" Clark who finished his fourth and last year with the hoop squad. His brilliant floor work and heady generalship have drawn the admiration and plaudits of fans for four years, and he has placed on all-conference teams each season.

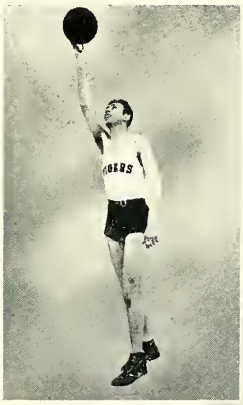

Prospects for next year are even better than they were this year: Ingraham, Waters, Doyle, Slocum, Hinkley, Reid, Martin, and others of the regular squad will be back. The team will be led by Harold "Inky" Ingraham who has served the Tiger Colors for two years on the basketball floor and is well-known for his bullet-like passes and his accurate shooting. Last year, due to a leg injury received in football, "Inky" was on the sidelines, but he came back this year to uphold adequately the reputation made in his freshman year.

BASKETBALL

"Pop" Slocum was a newcomer to the Bengal team this year, and set the conference on fire by his meteoric rise in the scoring column. Last year, he wasted his efforts on fraternity basketball, but this year, he alternated with Doyle on the forward end of the team. He is slated for two more stripes.

"Bill" Hinkley will return next season for his fourth stripe in basketball. His work at guard cinched his berth on the first five, and as a sideline, he has pulled several games out of the fire with his long shots.

Juan Reid turned in a perfect score at guard this season, playing his second year with the team. He will be back for two more stripes on the hoop squad, as well as another pair in football.

SLOCUM

Guy Martin played a second string guard last year but earned his letter in the latter part of the season by action in several hoop games. He has two more years before graduating.

MARTIN

BASKETBALL

Loren Chaney, a newcomer in the Bengal ranks, played a reserve guard, getting into several games. He will be back bidding for a regular position, next year.

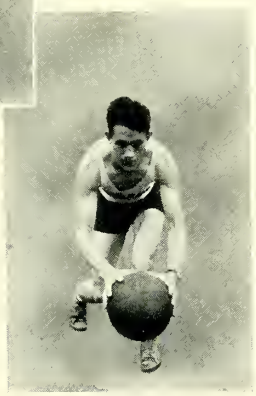

"Ernie" Waters, diminutive forward, was the "fightinest" player on the squad this season. What he lacked in avoirdupois and altitude, he more than made up in scrap. He has two more years.

"Bob" Doyle made his second letter in basketball as a forward. Doyle is a fast clever man and has a dead eye for the hoop.

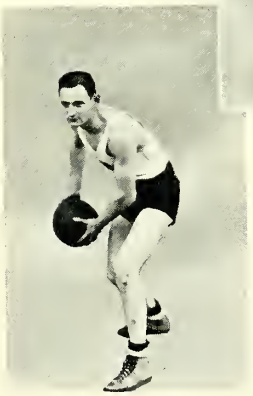

Fries, rangy center and forward, showed up well on the second string. His height will be of considerable advantage to the Tigers next year.

BASEBALL

Baseball last year met with little success, with the nine holding the cellar position in final conference percentage columns. The team played six games but failed to win any.

Under Captain Glenn Wade, the squad played at Fort Collins, Denver, and Boulder, with two games in each place.

Ineligibility hit the team last year as well as this, and as a result, the nine was considerably weakened from lack of experienced players.

This season there are three letter men of last year that failed to pass the required ten hours or came under the five year ruling. These are Triggs, Wade, and Scott. Blunt, Hill, Ingraham, Hinkley, Pomeroy, and Sprenger are all letter men and are playing this season.

BASEBALL

Captain-Elect Pomeroy

At the time of going to press, the squad had divided a brace of games with the State Teachers' nine, in games played at Greeley.

"Ken" Pomeroy was elected to head the squad for the season in the place of Glenn Wade.

Results of last season's games were as follows:

Colorado College, 5; Colorado Aggies, 13, (at Fort Collins).
Colorado College, 8; Colorado Aggies, 15, (at Fort Collins).
Colorado College, 3; Denver University, 14, (at Denver).
Colorado College, 3; Denver University, 7, (at Denver).
Colorado College, 0; Colorado University, 5, (at Boulder).
Colorado College, 2; Colorado University, 4, (at Boulder).

Batteries for all games were Anderson, Hinkley, Wade, Jacobs, and Sprenger.

SEASON OF 1929

PARKER

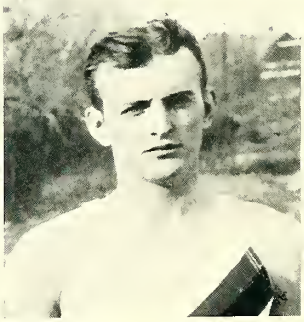

In the Colorado relays, at Boulder, the Bengals placed fourth by taking second in the mile relay, (Prince, Schisler, Penberthy, Haney) and third in the two mile relay (Prince, Hammer, Parker, Schisler). Final results were: C. U. 28, Colorado Aggies 17, D. U. 9, C. C. 5, Wyoming 3, Teachers 2, Chadron Normal 2.

By the next year, the Tigers had developed into a serious threat and finished a strong second: Wyoming 74, C. C. 60, Teachers 40. First and second in the 440 and in the two mile, first in the broad jump, first in the discus, first in the relay, with several thirds and fourths went to the Black and Gold men. In the discus, the Tigers placed three men, Clark, Lamberson, and L. Starbuck, "Dutch" making the toss.

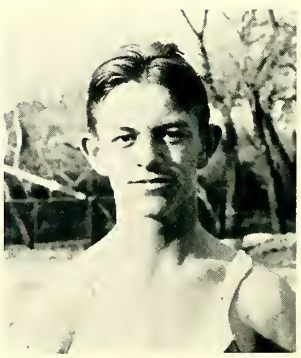

CLARK

On May 11, the Bengals took in Denver University to the tune of 79 to 61, and the next week at the Eastern Division meet at Denver, C. C. placed third with eight schools competing. A feature of the meet was the discus event in which Beatty of Aggies, Clark of C. C., and Clark of D. U. all broke the conference record, the last-named winning the throw.

EASTWOOD

HANEY

At the conference meet at Salt Lake City, Colorado College finished sixth among twelve entries. Placing Tigers were: Schisler, second in the 440; Barker, second in the two mile; Prince, second in the 220 hurdles; Clark, third in the hammer throw.

SEASON OF 1929

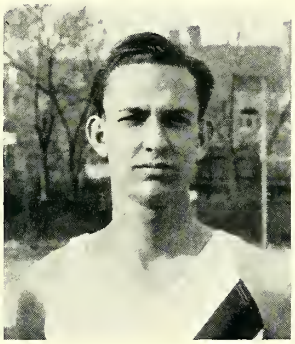

HAMMER

Track, during the last season, was hampered by the cold and rainy weather which continued through the training season. The squad, however, added several victories to C. C. track and field history, as well as finishing high in divisional meets held on both sides of the Rockies.

"Ed" Parker captained the squad last season, and will head it again this year. He is the class of the two-milers of the conference, and made a name for himself in two events at the National A. A. U. meet held in Denver last summer.

LACKEY

MAGRUDER

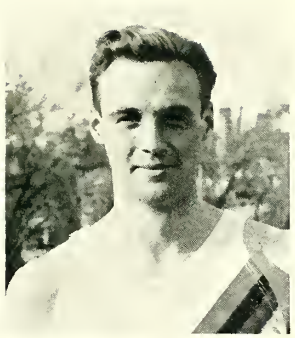

The team was hard hit by graduation, and less than a half dozen of last year's squad will be back next year. Fourteen won letters, including Parker, Clark, Hammer, Haney, Eastwood, Lackey, Penberthy, Prince, Schisler, Slocum, Smith, Vandenberg, Woodward, and Magruder.

PENBERTHY

In the first meet of the season, on April 13, the Tigers were overwhelmed by the strong C. U. team by a score of 110 to 30. Captain Parker, in the two mile, and Clark, in the weights, made the only two first places for the Tigers.

THE LETTER-MEN

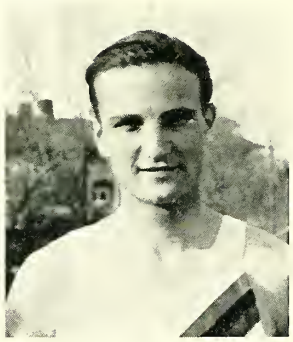

PRINCE

"Ed" Parker, captain and captain-elect. Star distance man, and National A. A. U. junior champion in the mile steeplechase.

"Dutch" Clark, performs in the weight events; holds the National A. A. U. junior championship in the hammer; has one more year of track.

Oscar Hammer, runs the mile and two mile, will be back for another letter next year.

SCHISLER

"Bill" Haney, made his letter in the 440 and relay. As he is only a freshman, he should do big things before he graduates.

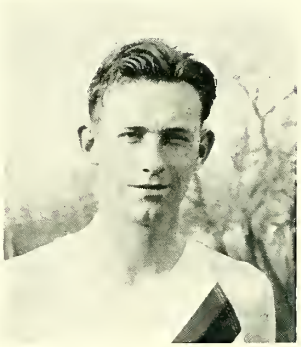

"Art" Eastwood, four letter man in the broad jump, one of the Tigers' most consistent point gainers.

"Bob" Lackey, speed merchant in the century and furlong, will graduate this year.

"Jim" Magruder, half-miler. Another freshman who will be heard from in the future.

"Penney" Penberthy, made his letter in the 440 and in the Relay Carnival.

"Al" Prince, freshman sprinter; runs both the dashes and the hurdles.

SLOCUM

"Schis" Schisler, last year's captain. He runs the dashes, and is always good for points in the javelin throw.

"Pop" Slocum, high jumper and another first year man.

Henry Smith, earned a letter in the relay.

"Swede" Vandenberg, four letter man. The Tiger's mainstay in the hurdles, and also a pole vaulter.

VANDENBERG

R. J. Woodward made his letter in the half mile.

MINOR SPORTS

TENNIS

Due partly to the lack of material, and partly to the inclement weather that prevailed last spring, the Tennis Team did not make a clean sweep of its matches for the season.

Franklin Koerner heads the squad for this year, coming into the berth with a good record in last year's matches, as well as putting the school on the tennis map in tournaments in the state last summer.

Captain Danson, of last year's squad, played a consistent game and won a good share of the matches for the team. Geshell, Koerner, Waters, and Danson were all awarded letters at the end of the season.

Top Row—Lamberson, Danson (Captain), Koerner
Front Row—Waters, Geshell

GOLF

Golf, a sport in which the Tigers usually have led in the conference, suffered a set-back in the 1929 season. Matches were played at Wellshire, Broadmoor, Lakewood, and Cherry Hills, the squad ending up in the center of the percentage column at the end of the season. Armstrong turned in the low net score at the conference meet at Cherry Hills, but the team score was not sufficient to take the match.

Seven men were awarded letters in golf, headed by Captain Armstrong. Vollmer, Killian, Ragle, Shonsby, Emery, and Henritze were the others. Four of the team will be back again this year.

INDOOR BASEBALL

Eight teams, divided into two leagues, were entered in the interfraternity indoor series. The Kappa Sigs played heads up ball to win their division and also the championship. In the other bracket, the Phi Gams came out on top, but lost to the campus champs in the play-off.

The games were well played and drew a good crowd although there were a few pitchers' duels, most of the contests were sluggers' battles.

FALL COMPETITION CUP

An innovation in inter-fraternity contests was introduced last fall when a cup was offered for the highest aggregate points gained in tennis, horseshoe pitching, and swimming. The plan was a complete success, and it is expected that the competition will be continued.

By taking the swim meet, two events in the horseshoe tournament, and runner-up position in the tennis matches, the Kappa Sigs took the cup with a comfortable lead over their nearest opponents, the Phi Gams.

TRACK

Beta and Kappa Sig track and field stars divided the honors in the annual inter-fraternity track meet held in Washburn field last spring. All entries were bunched at the finish, but these two, with 32 points apiece, were each awarded a cup. The Phi Delts placed third in the meet, and the Phi Gams fourth with 25 and 24 points respectively.

BASKETBALL

Led by Ed Blaine, who scored 103 points for his team, the Sigma Chis went through the 1930 basketball schedule with flying colors to win their third campus title. The Phi Delts finished in second place with one game lost, and the Fijis rated third by losing two games.

The race for the hoop pennant was featured by many close games, but the outcome was little in doubt after the Sigs had demonstrated their class in the first game. Following the season, Sig Chi quintet journeyed to Denver and added other laurels to their record by winning the state Sigma Chi title by defeating other chapters of their fraternity by decisive scores.

The Women's Athletic Association

The Women's Athletic Association is composed of members who have won distinction in one or more of the sports conducted under the direction of the Department of Physical Education for Women. Election to the association is on the basis of a point system, and awards and honors of various sorts are presented to women who secure the requisite number of points.

The purpose of the Women's Athletic Association is to increase interest in sports, in such a way as to promote good health, democracy, and better sportsmanship.

The work of the organization is carried on by a board consisting of a president, two vice-presidents, a secretary-treasurer, and heads of the following sports: hiking, basketball, tennis, volley ball, swimming, bowling, riding, soccer, and baseball.

The Riding Club, an important branch of the W. A. A., conducts a meet every spring. Organized hikes, basketball games, swimming meets, tennis tournaments, and other types of contests are included on the annual calendar of the organization. The Women's Athletic Association sponsors the annual May Fete which is held each year.

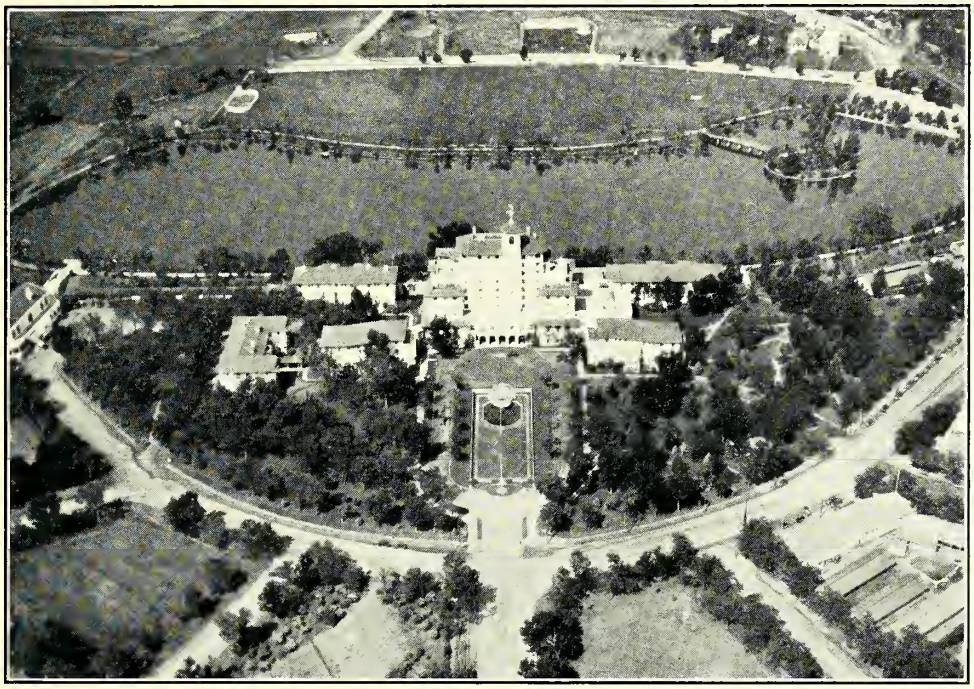

In May, the members of the Colorado College W. A. A. were hostesses to representatives from the Women's Athletic Associations of the colleges and universities of Colorado and Wyoming at their annual Play Day.

THE 1931 PIKES PEAK GOLDBRICK

The very unofficial publication of Colorado College

Affectionately
DEDICATED to
Ralph Rolypoly Gilmore

Because he possesses in no mean degree that great quality common to elephants, mountains, and washerwomen;

Because he never tires of publicly rehearsing the adult jokes with which he belabors long suffering lecture students trying to guffaw their way to a passing grade;

Because a pair of rompers are the one touch needed to completely carry out the intellectual effect already suggested by his baby face;

Because, in the Greater Colorado movement, he is our candidate for the chair of Applied Electicity;

Because he is either ignorant or disdainful of the practice of girth control;

Because, if he ever loses his present position, he can easily establish a well deserved success as an ambling advertisement for a rummage sale;

Because he maintains an endless griping mutter against the college administration;

Because, finally, he is doubtless the school's most polished example of that time-honored specimen commonly bearing the name, Goldbrick.

FOREWORD

The purpose of this little Goldbrick is:

To prove that all aren't Nuggets that glitter;

To let you know the truth that the aforementioned may make ye free;

To have the opportunity of rising to remark that Saunders and Fales are rapidly acquiring the dizzy appearance, the pompous air of empty importance, and general display of oafishness which seem so essential to the whole breed of yearbook carpentry.

May you receive this tender orphan of the academic storm with tolerant welcome and more grins than gripes—you probably aren't so funny yourself.

The large spoon is for the soup.

Although a century apart in time we are as rigidly careful of the Quality of our merchandise as the Old Craftsman.

That is why we don't sell "seconds," and why, for example, the inner soles of our shoes are made of the same tough, long-wearing leather as the outer.

Quality is that part of your purchase you must trust to our honor and keeping faith with our customers for over a quarter of a century has built up our business.

Capping the Pyramid

THE capstone on the mighty pyramid of Cheops is but a small part of the structure, but before it could be laid many an Egyptian toiled many a long year on broad foundations and solid blocks of stone.

Leadership in our chosen field is a goal well worth striving for, and the tasks which seem so remote from our specialized profession are less irksome when we realize that the crown of success goes to him whose foundations in the arts and sciences, in the practical and the cultural, are broadest and best laid.
